Gentlemen, The medallion from your last sale arrived in good condition and you will find the balance on them enclosed herewith, would have arrived sooner, but was not at home.

Have you any British War Medals different from those you sent me some time ago if so, state from what wars and price, I would also like to know the price of the following books and if you can furnish the same,

"Loubet's Medallion History of U. S.
1876 to 1876"

"Leion's Medallion History of Canada"

I remain,

Respt. Yours.

Gentlemen, The medal arrived in good condition, and thank you for the same.

If short time ago I wrote to you in regards to selling my medals, but as I have changed my mind entirely, and shall continue to collect, I desire that you send your catalogue of sales as before.

I also desire,
get me a Br. ...
the Little Campaign ... one or more ...

Thanking you for last
favor ...
